PRESS RELEASE

NEMACOLIN WOODLANDS RESORT RANKS IN THE TOP OF FORBES TRAVEL GUIDE'S 2020 STAR AWARDS

Kristin Butterworth and the Lautrec team

New York - February 12, 2020: One of the only resorts in the world to earn 22 stars, Nemacolin Woodlands Resort presents their prestigious 2020 Forbes Travel Guide Awards.

Forbes Travel Guide ("FTG"), the world-renowned and only global rating system for luxury hotels, restaurants and spas, today announced its annual Star Rating list, presenting Nemacolin Woodlands Resort with several Five- and Four-Star Ratings. The Nemacolin team was presented with a Five-Star Award for Falling Rock, for the third consecutive year, a testament to the resort team's dedication to providing world-class service. The modern boutique hotel designed by Frank Lloyd Wright's protégé was named number one overall and number one in service in the world versus the global brands benchmark list. The team at Lautrec, the resort's fine-dining restaurant helmed by award-winning Executive Chef Kristin Butterworth, also earned a Five-Star Award (for the 13th consecutive year), for the best service and facility in the world; since the opening of Lautrec, Chef Butterworth and her team have bridged innovative cuisine and world-class service bringing the highest echelon of culinary experiences to Pennsylvania's Laurel Highlands.

The Nemaocolin team received the Four-Star Awards for Aqueous restaurant, exemplifying the team's commitment to providing impeccable service and elevated cuisine. The Woodlands Spa received the Four-Star Award recognizing their personalized services and tailor-made treatments. This year, Chateau Lafayette earned its first Four-Star Award, with Forbes Travel Guide calling it "a grandiose gem in rustic Pennsylvania." Nemaocolin Woodlands Resort is showcased with all of the Star Award winners on ForbesTravelGuide.com.

The Falling Rock team

These accolades illustrate Nemaocolin's commitment to providing exceptional service and are a significant achievement for the hardworking associates that make up the Nemaocolin team. Says the resort's owner, Maggie Hardy Knox, "I am so proud of everyone that made this happen! Our goal as a resort is to be number one in the world! You all are truly the best in the world! Your talents are unparalleled. Congratulations!"
